A. My trigger finger was straight across the side of the gun, parallel to the -- to the slide.

Q. All right.

A. Because I grabbed the gun with the three fingers and my thumb, and my index finger was straight across the side of the gun, parallel to the slide.

Q. Did your index finger ever enter the trigger guard and go flush across the face of the trigger?

A. No, sir.

09:49

MR. HAAZ: Mr. Hurd, could you go through the next photos, please?

All right. Could I have the witness shown Exhibit 29.

Q. Officer Desrosiers, I want to go through some of the evidence collected in this case and take it piece by piece.

MR. HAAZ: Mr. Hurd, can you scroll down just kind of go one by one.

Q. Do you see -- this is CPD 83 in Exhibit 29.

Do you see the picture of that firearm?

A. Yes, sir.

09:50

Q. Do you recognize it?

A. It looks like a SIG Sauer P320.

Q. And if this is the P320 that was collected by the Cambridge Police Department in this case, would that have been your gun?

A. Could have been.

to add any detail about where your hands were or what you were doing with the gun, true?

A. People forget things, but when I saw the video -- I said from day one in my report, I had my hands on -- my right hand on the handle adjusting my gun. There is no question about that, and I -- it's out there. It's in the report.

Q. Well, you didn't -- you were asked where your trigger was in your deposition, true -- where your finger was relative to the trigger?

11:01 A. Oh, I know where the trigger is, yes.

Q. Do you remember saying that you can't answer that question, and you're speaking from your training. You didn't see it, true?

THE COURT: Speaking from his what?

A. Rephrase the question. I don't -- I don't understand question.

Q. I'm sorry. It was too long.

11:01 Do you remember testifying that you could not say, based upon your own knowledge, because you didn't see it, whether or not your finger was over the trigger, that you were saying that based upon your training?

MR. HAAZ: Object to the form.

THE COURT: Overruled.

Do you remember saying that?

A. Well, I remember my finger was on the side of the gun.
